

MANN ARTSTUDIO

3RD GRADE INTERNATIONAL
FLAGS AND LOUISA IN FIFTH
DIORAMA DESIGN

Collaborators, Explorers, Connectors, self-self-taught and story tellers are just a few of the artistic behaviors Mann students are developing in our choice based art studio.

A particular group of third graders have moved from illustrating state birds at the Drawing Center to weaving International flags at the Fiber Arts Center. Thinking ahead, slowing the process down and creating meaningful work is joyfully happening everyday!

CREATING SHADOWS IN 4TH

PAINTING TO MUSIC IN 1ST

EXPLORING PERSONAL INTEREST

Nancy Hugo, author and arborist tweeks our tree observation skills.

Students embrace the opportunity to wear the "Talking Cloth" Bobbo brought from Ghana.

Engaging and persisting new approaches in drawing from above and finding spaces to apply emphasis with color.

Fourth grader develops her craft in stitching a denim skirt to wear the rest of the day!

DCPS ART SHOW

Four Mann students have been selected to display their work at the DCPS Art Show! The DCPS Art show will be hosted at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Center, located downtown at 1300 Pennsylvania Ave NW.

OPENING CELEBRATION MAY 31ST 5PM-8PM, EXHIBITION OPEN UNTIL JUNE 7TH

ITSASO

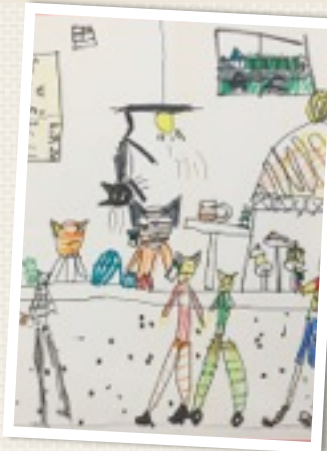

"I AM GOING TO MAKE MY FIRST COMMUNION SOON, SO I WANTED TO MAKE SOMETHING TO WEAR TO THAT" - ITSASO 1A

ANDRES

"I WAS THINKING ABOUT THINGS IN SPRING WHEN I MADE THIS"

-ANDRES 2S

OLIVIA

"I LOVE CATS, THERE IS A CAT CAFE AND I WAS TRYING TO IMAGINE WHAT IT WOULD LOOK LIKE"

-OLIVIA 2S

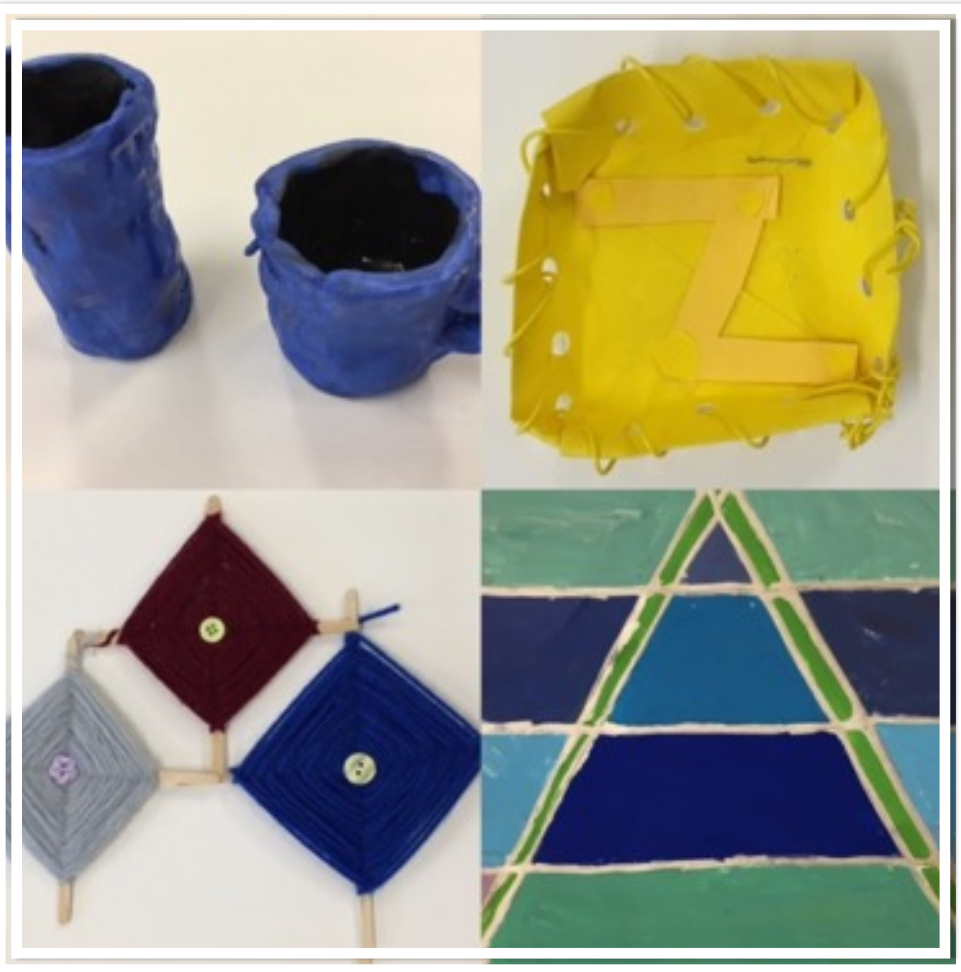

SOPHIE

"I WAS TRYING TO MAKE THE OBJECT BIGGER AND DIFFERENT"

-SOPHIE 5K

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
PUBLIC SCHOOLS

“YOU CAN DO ANYTHING, THATS WHAT I LIKE ABOUT ART”

-AARON 5K

ART WALK

June 1-June 17* Reception June 1st

Horace Mann ES
4430 Newark Street NW
Washington DC 20016

Art Walk 2016 an exhibition selected by students.

Students articulate their experience each art class by highlighting one part of their performance: Application, Effort, Craftsmanship, Planning, Responsibility. You will find an artist statement along with each art piece.

Exhibition work selected by the students also highlights a particular material, theme and center they found to be of great interest and skill this year.

*5th grade art will be ready to take home before graduation.