

Susie King Taylor Art Studio

“May our choices lead us to greatness”

The Art Studio

Choices students make in our studio will grow as they move in the first six weeks of school through the six main centers : Drawing, Collage, Printing, Sculpture, Fiber Arts and Painting.

Demonstrations will be given that connect purpose of art making to historical and current themes of place, culture, community, nature of Savannah. Already, students are showing great self-expression and

1

THANK YOU

For the amazing materials students will use this year!

2

SKETCHBOOKS

*A place of practice, study and focus for emerging ideas. See page 2

3

ART BLOG

artsaysthat.wordpress.com
My blog that shares more news & celebrations

Memory

Exploring material for the first time to be the material of choice for next idea

Imagination

Students showing understanding of balance, symmetry & color relationship.

Observation

Students exploring subjects we use every day.

original ideas! Like these two who chose to “observe” each other and “express” personal style

Sketchbooks

Thank you so much for sending the sketchbooks! The sketchbooks can be purchased once and move up with students through the grade levels. I have found the 50 blank page journals to be most successful in usage and storage in the art studio.

Sketchbooks will be used for practice, challenges, first five focus and outdoor excursions.

“I like coming to you to art class on Tuesday and I really, really like art. Its really fun!”

— Dejah week 1

Artwork will go home at the end of each grading point and with storage needs.

SMOCKS WILL BE IN THE STUDIO

We will have smocks and aprons in the studio, but if your child arrives home with evidence they attended art class...have no fear! All art materials are water soluble washable.

